..... PETITIONER

AND

.....RESPONDENTS

ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice Bilal Nazki,)

Yesterday, this case was taken up when the parents of the alleged detenue were also present. They were asked to appear today also along with the alleged detenue. The writ petitioner is also present along with his counsel. Today, the parents of the alleged detenue have not appeared and the learned Counsel appearing for the fourth respondent, who is the father of the alleged detenue, submits that his client has no objection in the detenue going along with the petitioner. We have recorded the statement of the detenue. She has deposed that she was a minor and had married petitioner, and would like to go with him. In this view of the matter, we dispose of the writ petition and allow the alleged detenue to go along with the writ petitioner, who is present in the Court.
